

HAVERING ADULT COLLEGE

Raising Confident Children

Develop your skills in communicating with your child to promote confidence in their abilities whilst boosting yours

This free five-week course aims to give you strategies to use with your child to communicate effectively in order to tackle behaviour with confidence whilst giving them value and respect as individuals.

You will learn about raising confident children by understanding ways to value them as individuals, understand how to communicate with children to ensure they feel valued and outline behaviour that shows respect and value of children, whilst building your own confidence in tackling challenging situations.
